in Anekal town in accordance with the provisions of the Bangalore Dt- dated Counal passed by a majority of 14 members as against 16 members, who attended the meeting

(v) The licensee collected materials valued

Rs 19 000/ for the construction of the theatre and dug out foundations, etc when he was served with a notice at the instance of the local Assistant Engineer to stop further work till permission for the construction was granted by the chief Engineer for Roads and Buildings

(vi) The Town planning Committee also approved subject to the conditions that an open space of 100 ft was kept in between the building and the main trunk Road and access to the theatre the trunk Road in order to fulfil these conditions, the licensee purchased the neighbouring house of one Mr. Rangappa at a fancy price of Rs 14,000/ which also helped to quelch his objection of the theatre being an annoyance to this solitary dwelling house in the vicinity

(vii) One Mr S Ramesh presented an objection petition in August '46 to the Govt and to the Dy Commr B'lore Dt against the Construction of the theatre. The Channapatna

2) The points urged in the Resolution of 28 2-47 for Cancellation of the licence were closely examined by the Sub Division officer and answered in detail in her letter of 17 8 47 wherefrom flag "U" it is seen that the objections Raised are untenable

3) The facts that the municipal Council Resolved on 30 11 46 to grant the licence when most of the municipal Councillors now objecting were also present and that the D-e in pursuance of the said Resolution ordered the grant of the licence and also that the Town planning Committee has approved ~~and~~ the plan and the Construction, imposing certain Conditions for the fulfilment of which the Licensee had to purchase the next house paying therefor a fabulous price of Rs 14000/- and the Report of the S.D.O all go strongly in favour of the licensee Mr. J N Srinivasiah

4) The S D O States that the late Objection to the Construction of the theatre by certain Councillors is the outcome of Jealousy and party politics and that the

The Cancellation of the License at this stage when the party has spent to the tune of Rs 45 000/- for foundation, collection of materials and the purchasing of the neighbouring property would spell his Ruination

30) The T P C S approval of the Construction is indicative of the fact that there is no subsisting legal or technical flaw in the continuing cap of the theatre on the site where the Solitary Residential house of Mr Rangappa has also since been purchased
